Sir:

In response to the Office Action dated November 4, 2002, please amend the above-identified patent application as follows:

IN THE SPECIFICATION:

Page 7, delete the whole paragraph starting in line 29, and replace it with the following paragraph.

B4
The terminal 2' in this case, however, is a computer, which is preferably connected to a network such as the Internet or an Intranet. Various pieces of information or offers, for example, product offers, can be presented, for instance with a suitable menu on the screen of the computer 2'. The customer can control this computer with his mobile device. For example, he can control the position of the cursor in a menu of products or information offered for sale by actuating the cursor movement keys on the keyboard 11 of his mobile telephone. The cursor movement instructions are transmitted via the contactless interface 101, 20 to the computer 2'. The user actuates a confirmation key, for example the key # on his keyboard, in order to confirm the selected menu option, for example to order a product.
